

Pathfinder LARP presents:

Desperate Hope

A Pathfinder LARP Overnight Adventure

Friday the 1st to Sunday the 3rd of August 2008

Newtown, Powys (Wales)

War is upon Vara. After months of planning and work a small group of brave souls prepare to venture beyond the boundaries of the world they know in a last hope to end the cycle of war. Even as they do so massive armies gather in Gralamire for a coming battle on the plains of Mara.

This will be a self catering event comprised of both 'freeform' tavern nights and daytime 'adventures'; Players are expected to monster a short section on the Sunday morning. Monster Crew will be able to play both the tavern nights and also the Sunday Morning section, however a couple of full time crew would be appreciated as would some assistance with site set-up. The majority of accommodation will be camping, although there is a limited amount of basic bunk space (for no more than 10 people), which will be allocated on a first come – first served basis, only for those who have paid deposits. No deposit, no crash space.

(If you do not have any camping equipment, there may be tents available to borrow. Please contact Matt Moore about this.)

The cost for the event will be:

£10 to Monster Crew

£25 to Play

Payable by Friday 25th July, with a minimum £5 non-returnable deposit. Cheques should be made payable to Matthew Randall Moore. Paypal may be available but only as a last resort and we will have to ask you to pay 10% extra (total of £11 to Monster or £27.50 to Play).

We are not accepting electronic Booking forms for the event, snail mail only please.
